TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Taipei 101 - Taipei 101 is a 106-floor building (5 floors underground and 101 above the ground) located in Taipei (Taiwan), the height of 509 meters makes it the second highest skyscraper in the world. 56 meters higher than the Petronas Towers in Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia). On July 21, 2007 was surpassed in height by Burj Dubai, which when completed will hold the title of world's tallest building.

Tamsui Old Streets - is a smaller city to the north of Taipei that was the center of shipping and commerce in northern Taiwan in the 19th century. The city is still popular with visitors from Taipei and boasts many historical attractions, and is a popular location for viewing the sunset.

Shangrila Leisure Farm - is about two hundred and fifty meters in altitude and within a temperate weather condition in four seasons situated on the foot of Dayuan Mountain. It is another good choice for Taiwan travel. Surrounded by hills and mountains, the farming offers a perfect site for visitors to overlook the valleys, rivers, plains, farms, islands, and ocean.
