TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Cu Chi Tunnel – It is an elaborate and extensive network of tunnels, covering more than 200km, served as an important logistic advantage to Viet Cong linking command posts, medical aids, shelter, foods, weapon caches and living quarters for guerilla by going through the tunnel in person and shoot a few rounds at the shooting range from a list of weaponry used during insurgency.

Ben Thanh Market – It is a large marketplace in the downtown area of Hồ Chí Minh City, Vietnam in District 1. The market is one of the earliest surviving structures in Saigon.

Ho Chi Minh City Hall – was built in 1902-1908 in a French colonial style for the then city of Saigon. It was renamed after 1975 as Ho Chi Minh City People's Committee. Illuminated at night, the building is not opened to the public or for tourists. A statue of the namesake is found in park next to the building.
